

Don't Miss Mass Bay RRE's Special Excursion Train:

'DAY CAPE CODDER II'

over the Cape Cod Central & Mass Coastal Railroads

From West Barnstable, Buzzards Bay & Middleboro to Hyannis & Return

Saturday, May 14, 2011 ONLY!!

Don't miss this rare opportunity to ride all of the Mass Coastal and Cape Cod Central railroad line between Hyannis and Middleboro, Massachusetts. Mass Bay RRE's specially-chartered 'Day Cape Codder II' train continues our 77-year-old tradition of offering special train excursions to the public.

Our train's unique itinerary allows passengers to board at any of three locations along the way and still experience a round-trip journey over the entire route. Passengers on the Cape may board the train at West Barnstable at 7:25 AM, or across the canal in Buzzards Bay at 8:30 AM. From Buzzards Bay we'll travel north through Wareham and South Middleboro to the MBTA's Middleboro/ Lakeville commuter rail station, where passengers may connect from our connecting bus from Boston. From Middleboro we'll head back south through Buzzards Bay and across the historic 544' long Cape Cod Canal lift bridge to Canal Junction. There we'll turn east for the journey along the Cape Cod Canal and then through Sagamore and Sandwich, stopping at West Barnstable before continuing on to Hyannis. During our 1 1/2 hour stopover in Hyannis our train will make a shuttle trip back to West Barnstable, allowing passengers to visit the restored 1912 depot there, home of the Cape Cod Chapter NRHS museum. Then we'll begin the return trip to Buzzards Bay, crossing the Canal bridge one more time before ending the day's run in Middleboro.

Our train will consist of dining cars from the Cape Cod Central Railroad's dinner train, along with one coach with a snack counter. Motive power will include one or more vintage diesels. Current Mass Bay RRE members are eligible for reduced fares - see our web site for complete details of our member benefits policy.
